ADDITIONAL IOWA STUDENT LOAN DISCLOSURES

A. Cosigner Requirements

A cosigner is required for this loan if the Borrower does not meet the Lender's age, citizenship, credit, income or employment criteria.

Cosigners may also affect the interest rate on Borrower's loan. If Borrower has a cosigner, Borrower may receive a better interest rate and improve Borrower's chances for loan approval. The effect a cosigner has upon the interest rate depends upon the cosigner's creditworthiness. The more creditworthy the cosigner, the greater potential there is for a lower interest rate.

B. Repayment of Loan Information

Repayment of Borrower's loan begins six (6) months after the Borrower leaves school or ceases to be enrolled on at least a half-time basis, as defined by the School.

The repayment period of the loan is 5, 10, or 15 years. The Borrower must choose a plan in which they are eligible.

Additionally, Borrower can prepay the loan in whole or part at any time without penalty.

C. Additional Terms and Conditions

Borrower's loan is subject to all of the terms and conditions of Borrower's Credit Agreement/promissory note. Please read Borrower's Credit Agreement/promissory note carefully, it may include terms under which the interest rate on the loan may change.

To obtain a copy of Borrower's Credit Agreement/promissory note, please contact us at the address or phone number listed below.

D. Consequences of Loan Default

There are serious consequences if Borrower defaults on this loan, including any limitations on discharging the loan in bankruptcy, contained in Section 523(a)(8) of the United States Bankruptcy Code. Under normal circumstances, student loans are not dischargeable in bankruptcy. In order to discharge a loan in bankruptcy, the borrower must prove undue hardship in an adversary proceeding before the bankruptcy court.

Additional consequences of default on this loan include:

- Lender may report the late payment history to consumer reporting agencies, which will adversely affect Borrower's credit rating and ability to get more credit
- Interest will continue to accrue on the outstanding principal balance
- Lender may take legal action
- Borrower will become ineligible for further loans from the lender
